ATTEMPT TO WRECK BUCKROE CAR FAILS

It Is Believed That a Negro Pul Tie Across Track Found
Near Bay Shore

MOTORMAN SEES THE OBSTRUCTION

Only by the Quick Action of Man at the Controller Was Catastrophe Prevented—Street Car Company Will Pay Reward For Arrest and Conviction of Fiend.

"We are going to use every effort to punish the person guilty of the crime, and already we have information that may lead to an early arrest. We will pay $100 reward to the person furnishing us with information which will lead to the conviction of the man."

Thus spoke Hon. Samuel Gordon Cumming last night, when asked what action the Newport News and Old Point Railway and Electric Company intended to take looking toward bringing to justice the negro who placed a tie on the tracks near Buck-roe Beach late Thursday night.

That the work of the negro did not result in the killing of passengers is no fault of his. Only the quick eye of the motorman prevented a catastrophe. The last car which leaves Buckroe a few minutes after midnight was the one selected by the fiend to wreck.

The large beam was placed across the track just below the Bay Shore switch and it was due to the fact that along this route the cars run slowly that the motorman saw the obstruction in time to prevent the car from smashing into it.

Standing down the track about 100 yards the motorman saw a negro man. This man was using vile language and yelled to those on the cars to go after him. The motorman was unarmed and no one on the car had a revolver, or there might have been a colored funeral in that vicinity yesterday. However, without firearms, the men on the car started after the fleeing negro, but were unable to catch him. W. W. Weston, motorman, and C. E. Armstrong, conductor, were in charge of the car.

In order to make it convenient for the visitors to Buckroe and to the colored resort, Bay Shore, the street railway company did not stop at the colored resort terminal. Just what prompted the man to attempt to wreck the car is unknown.

LITTLE HUGH CUMMING HAS BAD FALL IN JAPAN

Son of Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Cumming Fell From a Second Story Window in Yokohama.

A letter has been received in Hampton announcing the remarkable escape from death of Hugh S. Cumming, the little son of Dr. and Mrs.
Hugh Cumming, who are stationed at Yokohama, Japan. The boy fell from the second-story window of the hotel at which Dr. and Mrs. Cumming are living. He was bruised, but no bones were broken by the fall.

Dr. Cumming is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cumming of Hampton, while Mrs. Cumming is the daughter of Dr. Booth of Carter's Grove, in James City county.

PENNSYLVANIA "COSSACKS" MURDER TWO STRIKERS

Harmless Pistol Ball Starts Attack Which Results in Two Fatalities —Eight Men Wounded.

(By Associated Press.)

INDIANA, PA., June 8.—The town ownest on the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg railroad, five miles from here, was the scene today of a conflict between a detail of State constabulary and striking coal miners, in which two strikers were killed and eight wounded, three fatally.

Shortly after daylight, a body of strikers, headed by a brass band, marched from Anita mines, in Jefferson county, to receive one of the mine officials expected from Punxsutawney.

On the way to the station the marchers encountered a detail of twelve members of the State constabulary and as they passed a member of the band fired his revolver at the troopers.

No one was struck, but the constabulary immediately retaliated with a volley from their carbines.

When the smoke cleared away eight strikers were lying on the ground and the others fled down the hill.

Two of those shot were killed instantly and the others were seriously wounded.

efrant witnesses to give evidence before the grand jury.

William H. McAllister, secretary of the American Tobacco company; William E. Rensome secretary of the McAndrews Forbes Company of this city and John S. Young, of the firm of S. S. Young and company of Baltimore were presented before the justice for refusing to produce certain books and papers and to answer questions.

The justice ordered them to produce the books and answer the questions.

The grand jury in its presentment to Judge Lacombe says it has found evidence tending to show an agreement lasting from 1903 to date between the American Tobacco company, the Young and the McAndrews and Forbes company, as well as other tobacco and licorice concerns as to prices and other conditions of the sale of licorice here and abroad, so as to control the licorice trade.
